

Guest Lecture at SMC College of Dairy Science

As a part of the guest lecture series under the aegis of Alumni Association, SMC College of Dairy Science, Mr. Subin Jose, B.Tech. (DT) 1987-1991 batch who is holding the post of AGM (International Sales), Symega Flavours India Pvt. Ltd. was invited as a distinguished speaker on 4th August, 2017. Dr. J.B. Prajapati, Principal and Dean; Dr. J.B. Upadhyay, Professor, Dairy Engineering department and Dr. A. Jana, Professor and Head, Dairy Technology department facilitated the event. Mr. Jose addressed the UG and PG students as well as faculty members on this occasion. Mr Jose has rich experience of working in many countries and in diversified fields. He was with reputed MNCs related to fruit juices, food machinery and packaging equipment. The manner in which Mr. Subin shared his professional experience and his dealing with corporates and visit to several countries abroad was highly appreciated and applauded by the audience. He was also a coordinator of Middle East chapter of alumni association of SMC College of Dairy Science and has united more than 75 SMCites working in gulf and carried out many social and technical activities. He also gave some tips to the students' which would be of benefit to their professional career and wished our students to join his company in near future.

