

Guest Lecture on “Skill Development and Job opportunity of Horticulture Diploma Students” at SDMPH, AAU, Vadodara

Sheth D. M. Polytechnic in Horticulture, Model farm, AAU, Vadodara organised a guest lecture by Er. Paresh Parsana, Gujarat State Head, Irrilink Drip Irrigation, Vadodara on 22/12/2017 on the topic of “Skill Development and Job opportunity of Horticulture Diploma Students in Micro-irrigation”. Dr. B. H. Panchal, Unit Head and Principal of SDMPH, AAU, Vadodara welcomed him and emphasized that skill and knowledge are the driving force for the employment opportunity. Horticulture sector is a one of the fast growing sector and will open new jobs in various field in coming days. Er. Paresh Parsana gave an interesting and informative presentation in depth on skill development and its role in capacity building and upgrading knowledge at present competitive time. In addition to this he enlightened to the students with deliberate discussion on importance of drip irrigation in Horticulture sector and relevancy of diploma (Horti.) degree in micro – irrigation sector. Talks end with vote of thanks given by shri.V.D.Rathva, Assistant professor & SRC chairman. Total 83 students as well staff members attended this lecture.

Photo Gallery

