

Dr. M. L. Gaur, Principal, CAET (AAU) Godhra has bagged National Gold Medal for his Outstanding Contributions in undertaking Empowerment of Youths in Agriculture

On the recommendation of Jury headed by Professor (Dr.) R. B. Singh, the governing board of AIASA has conferred a National Gold Medal Award (AIASA Gold Medal - 2015) on all India basis to Dr. Murari Lal Gaur, Principal College of Agricultural Engineering & Technology (AAU) Godhra, for his outstanding contributions in undertaking empowerment of youths in agriculture. Dr Gaur received the said award from Shri Radha Mohan Singh Ji , Hon'ble Union Agriculture Minister (Govt of India) in a grand ceremony organized at NASC Complex New Delhi on 27-01-2016, where 22 different awards were conferred to prestigious personalities of ICAR -SAU System including DG, DDGs, Vice Chancellors, Principals/Deans, and Youths, during National Youth Convention on Attracting & Retaining Youth in Agriculture (ARYA), a new innovative scheme launched by Government of India in 25 districts of 25 states of country to attract youth in agriculture. The program was jointly organized by ICAR & AIASA. The press and media had given wide coverage on contents, deliberations, declarations & discussions of this important national event, which was actively attended by Minister/Member of Parliament and other higher authorities. It could be seen on various leading national news sites (1. Business Standard- www.business-standard.com Press Trust of India Jan, 27, 2016, 19:33 2. The Economics Times, Press Trust of India 27thJan, 2016 06:08 PM, and others).