

AGRIUNIFEST 2016-17

It's with great pleasure to know that Anand Agricultural University participated in 17th Agriunifest held at Rajasthan University of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Bikaner, 22-25 February 2017.

This mega event has brought together the young students with diversified cultural background, traditions, languages and religions and also fortified the young minds about unity, fraternity, national integration and cultural values. This annual mega cultural fair of ICAR has provided an excellent platform for the young students of various agricultural universities of the country to express their enormous hidden talent and creativity in the field of art, dance and culture and to unite, exchange ideas and showcase their inherent talents.

A Cultural team of AAU has secured the gold medal in Mime and Cultural Procession event. Hon. Vice Chancellor Dr. N.C. Patel and Director, Students' Welfare Dr.S.H. Akbari Congratulate to all the participants.
