

Participation in One Day Training cum Workshop Program on “Renewable Energy Sources and Environment Protection”

One day training cum workshop on “Renewable Energy Sources and Environment Protection” has been organized by Sardar Patel Renewable Energy Research Institute (SPRERI), V.V. Nagar and sponsored by Gujarat Council on Science and Technology, Department of Science and Technology, Govt. of Gujarat on 26/02/2020.

Er. Shradhdha Pandya, Scientist, Extension Department, SPRERI addressed the students and introduced about the SPRERI. She explained about the functioning of SPRERI.

The training cum workshop programme covered various aspects based on the renewable energy technology topics, such as, “Thermo Chemical Conversion Technology- Dr. Geeta Kumari; Bio Conversion Technology- Er. Priyank Ka. Patel; “Introduction and live demonstration of Renewable Energy Gadgets- Me. Alabhai, Representative of GEDA, Gandhinagar and Solar Energy Technology– Dr. Sachin Gupta, Solar Energy Division using power point presentation and questionnaire mode.

At the end of workshop programme, a valedictory and certificate distribution session was organized with live interaction with expert of renewable energy; where two students from under graduate and one student from post graduate students given their feedback and the facilitator also shared her experience.

