

Tech KrishIT 2017

A State level Technical festival “Tech KrishIT-2017” has been organized by the College of Agricultural Information Technology, on 14th September 2017, in which students from various colleges of computer science, Information technology and Allied Sciences across the state were invited to participate.

The Tech-Fest was based on technical events like Programming Contest, Poster Presentation, Quiz and Robo Race. 150 students from more than 20 colleges / Institutes across state have participated in various events of “Tech KrishIT-2017”.

The Tech KrishIT-2017 was inaugurated by Dr. N. C. Patel, Hon. Vice Chancellor, AAU, Anand and Dr B. C. Vaidya, well-known Academician and Professor from Javaharlal Nehru University, New-Delhi. The guests of honour were Dr. Arun Patel - Director of Extension Education, Dr. S.H. Akbari-Director of Student Welfare, Dr. D. R. Kathiriya – Dean & Principal of Faculty of AIT, Dr. Dr. M. N. Bhrambhattach - Registrar, Dr. K. P. Patel - Dean & Principal of Faculty of Agriculture, Dr. D. C. Joshi - Dean & Principal of Faculty of FPT and Dr. J. B. Prajapati - Principal of College of Dairy Science. After the inauguration they visited events viz. Programming Contest, Poster Presentation, Quiz and Robo Race and blessed participants for their success.

The Tech-Fest valedictory function was presided by Dr. M. M. Bhrambhattach – Registrar-AAU, Dr. D. R. Kathiriya - Dean & Principal of Faculty of AIT and President of Tech KrishIT-2017 along with Prof. M. P. Raj – Organizing Secretary of Tech KrishIT-2017. The winners and runners up were awarded cash prizes, trophies and certificates. The delegates congratulated Tech KrishIT-2017 squad and the whole college for organizing event successfully and even make it bigger in coming years.

