

Debate Competition Organized by
“Innovations & 21st Century Skills”
G-20 Summit 2023, CAET, AAU, Godhra

Event Organized

Under the Indian Presidency, 18th Heads of State and Government Summit of the Group of 20 (G20) will take place during September 2023 in New Delhi, India., on the theme, ‘One Earth, One Family, One Future’. The theme affirms the value of human, animal, plant, and micro-organisms and their interconnections on planet earth and in the universe. Presidency of India advised different activities to be done at college level for the various topics and subjects. As a part of G-20 Summit 2023, a committee of “Innovations & 21st Century Skills” is formed. A debate competition organized by Er. Chirag Jadav, Convenor “Innovations & 21st Century Skills” and Assistant Professor in Mechanical Engineering of Basic Engineering & Applied Sciences Department, and Er. Suryaprakash Suryavanshi, Co-Convenor “Innovations & 21st Century Skills”, CAET, AAU, Godhra on 17/06/2023.

About Event

Event started on 09:00 am with the welcome talk by Er. Chirag Jadav. He had brief about the G-20 summit 2023, importance of the event, rules, and regulations of the competition. Students given a topic for debate was “Is 21st century Innovations are advantageous or not or both?”. Total 22 students have participated and discussed lot regarding the topics. They have put very informative comments about the different innovations, how they are beneficial or not. Students show their concern about the side-effect on human beings like radiation effect of mobile towers, unemployment, wastage of time and money, etc., by using different machines and gadgets. While students have also explained benefits of the different innovations and technologies like better connectivity, easy operation, better utilization, etc. After the events students themselves realize their talent and way of thinking, way of understanding the things of innovations.

Key Role of Officer, Faculty and Staff

Er. Chirag Jadav, Convenor and Er. Suryaprakash Suryavansi, co-convenor organized and taken care of all the activities during the program. Dr. K. L. Dabhi, Dr. Gautam Kamani, Mrs. Shefali Modi & Mrs. Hetal Tanna gave hands on all possible ways to make event success. With all due support given from Er. Kapil Mandloi, Head, BEAS Department. A vital role played by the Dr. R. Subbaiah, Principal & Dean, CAET, AAU, Godhra to make this event successful and fruitful.

