ADMISSION FOR 9th TRAINING-CUM-COACHING
FOR ICAR NATIONAL ELIGIBILITY TEST (NET)

National Eligibility Test (NET) is a qualifying examination, conducted by the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR), for determining eligibility for Lecturer/Assistant Professor in the State Agricultural Universities (SAUs) and other Agricultural Universities (AUs). Anand Agricultural University (AAU) will be conducting training-cum-coaching programme to prepare the 9th batch of candidates for ICAR-NET at AAU, Anand tentatively commencing from 19th September, 2021. The online training programme will be conducted on Saturdays (2nd & 4th) and all Sundays consisting of lecture sessions, mock tests and test discussion sessions.

Selection Criteria: Interested passed out postgraduates or final year Master degree or Ph.D. students of four state agricultural universities and Kamdhenu University of Gujarat are invited to submit their applications. Without submitting applications on due time, candidates will not be allowed to attend the classes. Admission and the disciplines to be taught in the current programme will be decided by AAU, depending upon the number of applications received for different disciplines.

Stipend: A stipend of Rs. 100/- per one hour session will be provided to each SC/ST student on the basis of attendance (minimum 80% attendances are compulsory). The candidates who have attended earlier training programmes will not be eligible for a stipend.

Submission of Application: Candidates are requested to submit their application form attaching soft copies of passport size photographs, Master's Degree Certificate (last semester marksheet for final year Masters students) and caste certificates (only for SC/ST students) using following link:
