

Interactive session with class-I and class-II officials of line departments, Government of Gujarat organized at Agricultural Research Station, Sansoli

Interaction/Group discussion with 35 class-I and class-II officials of line departments, Govt. of Gujarat regarding “Crop production technology in oil seed crops”, organized at Agricultural Research Station, Sansoli in the presence of Dr. B. N. Patel, Associate Res. Scientist & Unit head, Prof. M. B. Zala, Assistant Res. Scientist and Prof. S. A. Sipai, Assistant Extn. Educationist, ARS, Sansoli on 21/07/2016. The interaction was focused on importance of oilseed crops, how to increase area, production and productivity of oilseed crops and dissemination of scientific information among the farmers and rural communities.

Prof. M. B. Zala had given the brief outline of research and extension activities going on at the centre and also carried out the diagnosis of crop samples. The field visit of officials of line departments was undertaken by Prof. S. A. Sipai.

