

Plantation of Medicinal & Aromatic Plants at Health Center

Medicinal & Aromatic Plants are rich in secondary metabolites and its daily consumption is beneficial for one's health. Tulsi, Arduisi. Sargandha, Ashwagandha, Kalmegh etc. plants should be planted near Health Center is more importance as a health point of view.

Director, Students' Welfare organized a programme of Plantation of Medicinal and Aromatic plants at Health Center of Anand Agricultural University on August, 3, 2015. Plantation was done by Dr. P.P.Patel, Director, Extension Education, Dr. D.R.Kathiriya, Director, Information Technology, Dr. S.H.Akbari Director, Students' Welfare, Dr. K.P.Patel, Principal & Dean, BACA, Dr.H.C.Patel, Principal, Horticulture College, Dr.N.S.Parekh, Associate Professor and Medical Officer of Health Center. More than 100 plants was planted

