“Celebration of Teacher's Day at CAET, Godhra”

As we all know that the birth anniversary of Bharat Ratna, Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan has been celebrated as Teacher's Day every year all over the India. Dr. Radhakrishnan was the First Vice President of India and then as the second President of India. When he became President many of his students expressed their desire to celebrate his birthday. On the contrary, Dr. Radhakrishnan told them that he would be honored if his birthday was celebrated as 'Teacher's Day' instead. Ever since then, Dr. S. Radhakrishnan's birthday is celebrated as a Teacher's day.

The students of the College of Agricultural Engineering and Technology, AAU, Godhra also celebrated the day to pay their tribute to Dr. S. Radhakrishnan and to pay their respect to all distinguished Teachers and Staff of the college. The program was started with the lighting of the lamp, performing Sarswati puja and singing the University Prerangeet. Mr. Ankit Nimavat, the final year student welcomed Dr. R. Subbaiah, Principal and Dean, all HOD's, Teaching and Non-teaching staff and students for their graceful presence in the function and also highlighted the importance of the celebration of 'Teacher's Day'. All present Staff members were felicitated by offering flowers as a token of respect. Mr. Gelani Karan, 2nd year student and Miss. Chandra Sakshi, 1st year student delivered the speeches on memoirs of Dr. S. Radhakrishnan and their wholehearted feelings about "Teacher". Some of the staff members and HOD's expressed their views about 'Teacher's Day'. Dr. R. Subbaiah, Principal and Dean, elaborated the relationship between Teacher and Students in Professional and Higher education Institute. He expressed that students might consider their Teacher as his senior so that gap between them would be reduced and both of them learn the things from each other in friendly atmosphere. Mr. Naimish Desai, General Secretary of the college expressed his thanks to one and all present in the function. Lastly, the program was ended with National Anthem.
