Yes and we are Her!!!
 I am her, you're her and we are her!
 A life without her is like:
 Morning flower without dew,
 Mountains without view,
 Foodie without food
 And a Shop without goods.
 The foundation of the humanity rely
 For centuries and the days to come by,
 Upon the generation of the mighty her
 When all the hope died
 Her faith rose and further stride
 Taking off her burdens and leaping with determination
 Off she blossomed with the emanation,
 Of power, kindness, love, support and home, sweet home
 And yet once again instilled undying hope.
 Mothers, Daughters, Sisters, wife, doctors, police, army, Teacher
 And every women on this soil a believer
 At a time especially like today and so shall the remaining
 No need of Armour and swords,
 Yet the lion in women roared,
 Never getting any in her way
 She kept on surviving and stayed
 Watching with her loving eye
 Caring with her heart up the sky
 Saving her home, her nation and her world
 And Finally A women warrior of Covid 19.
 Yes And we are her!
 And we live...
