

Guest Lecture on “Entrepreneurship Development” at SDMPH, AAU, Vadodara

Sheath D.M.Polytechnic in Horticulture had organized a guest lecture on 16th April, 2018 On the topic of “Entrepreneurship Development” for the students of polytechnic in Horticulture at Model farm, Vadodara and final year student’s college of Agriculture, Jabugam. The speaker for the lecture was Er. Deepak Gadhiya who is presently working with Muni Seva Ashram, Goraj as a Trustee having technological background from the Germany in the field of renewable energy over the last three decades. He is also a well-known solar engineer, social entrepreneur and mentor. The second speaker was Chandrakantbhai a consultant and entrepreneur in the field of Horticulture. The event started with Prarthna as by welcoming address. In welcome addressed. B. H. Panchal, Principal, SDMPH, expressed his word of gratitude to guest Er. Deepak Gadia and addressed students regarding contents of lecture.

In his lecture Er. Deepak Gadhiya disclosed the Western and the Indian ideology of looking at innovation from the old times till the present day. He also explained various uses of renewable energy in the field of agriculture and how it is an ecofriendly. He motivated the participants by quoting many exclusive examples of technology field and mentioned how to build capacity to overcome with challenges. He shared his own experiences how and why came to India from the Germany and finally at Mooni Seva Ashram, Goraj.

Students of polytechnic in Horticulture, Vadodara and final year student’s college of Agriculture, Jabugam had participated in this event. In last the event was closed by votes of thanks.

Photo Gallery

Er. Deepak Gadhiya delivering lecture

Visited at Library cum Museum

