

BACA NCC Boys` Unit celebrated special awareness programme on Women Empowerment under Nai Roshni Scheme

NCC boys Unit of B. A. College of Agriculture organized an event called “Nai Roshni Scheme - Empower Women” under the “Special Week for Spreading Awareness” on 20th May 2024. The senior wing (SW) cadets (including second and third year students) of B. A. College of Agriculture participated in this event. The programme was aimed to highlight the essence of this scheme by delivering talk to empower minority women and others in their villages. Women's empowerment always helps to achieve equality. It also reduces poverty and grows the economy. Being an agriculture institution, it was also highlighted to empower women in agriculture sector through developing entrepreneurial skills and income generating techniques in agriculture. The lecture was delivered by Dr. Jagruti C. Shroff, Associate Professor in Dept. of Agronomy, B. A. College of Agriculture as an expert of the subject and key speaker. The event was supervised by Dr. Aakash Mishra, NCC, CTO, B. A. College of Agriculture, AAU, Anand.

Key Speaker: Dr. Jagruti C. Shroff
