

Expert Lecture Organized by “Youth in Democracy and Governance and Health, Wellbeing & Sports Agenda for Youth”
G-20 Summit 2023, CAET, AAU, Godhra

Event Organized

Under the Indian Presidency, 18th Heads of State and Government Summit of the Group of 20 (G20) will take place during September 2023 in New Delhi, India., on the theme, ‘One Earth, One Family, One Future’. The theme affirms the value of human, animal, plant, and micro-organisms and their interconnections on planet earth and in the universe. To support the G20 Summit 2023 at the college level, the Indian Presidency has advised the implementation of various activities across different topics and subjects. As a part of G-20 Summit 2023, a committee of “Youth in Democracy and Governance and Health, Wellbeing & Sports Agenda for Youth” is formed. An Expert Lecture organized by Er. Aravind Kunapara, Head IDE Dept. & Convener and Er. Chirag Jadav, Co-Convenor “Youth in Democracy and Governance and Health, Wellbeing & Sports Agenda for Youth” & Assistant Professor in Mechanical Engineering of Basic Engineering & Applied Sciences Department, CAET, AAU, Godhra on 19/08/2023. The lecture aimed to provide insights and foster discussions on Youth in Democracy and Governance and Health, Wellbeing & Sports Agenda for Youth.

About Event

Er. Chirag Jadav, Assistant Professor, Basic Engineering & Applied Sciences Department, graced the event with his expertise. The event commenced at 02:30pm with a warm welcome address by Er. Aravind Kunapara, who shed light on the significance of the G-20 summit 2023 and introduced Er. Chirag Jadav as an expert, highlighting his remarkable knowledge related to constitution, laws, fitness, and sports. A total of 12 students eagerly attended the lecture, eager to absorb Dr. Tiwari's wealth of knowledge.

Er. Chirag Jadav, an expert in democratic processes and youth engagement, delivered an insightful lecture on "The Role of Youth in Democracy." His lecture emphasized the vital role that young people play in shaping and sustaining democratic societies. Key points from his lecture included: Youth as Catalysts for Change: Er. Chirag highlighted how the energy, idealism, and fresh perspectives of young people can drive positive change in democratic systems. Voting Power: He stressed the importance of youth participating in elections, as their votes are a fundamental tool for influencing government policies and decisions.

Advocacy and Activism: Er. Chirag discussed how youth-led advocacy and grassroots activism can bring about policy reforms and social progress. Technology and Social Media: He explored the impact of technology and social media in mobilizing youth and amplifying their voices in political discourse. Inclusivity: Er. Chirag emphasized the need for creating inclusive spaces that welcome and respect the diversity of young voices. Education and Awareness: He highlighted the role of civic education in empowering youth with knowledge about democracy and their rights. Inspiration for the Future: Er. Chirag concluded by inspiring hope for a future where active and engaged youth continue to be essential agents of positive democratic change. Er. Chirag Jadav's lecture served as a call to action, encouraging both young and older generations to collaborate in strengthening and advancing democracy through youth participation.

Key Role of Officer, Faculty and Staff

The event was meticulously organized and seamlessly executed thanks to the efforts of Er. Aravind Kunapara, Convenor and Er. Chirag Jadav, co-convenor. Er. Suryaprakash Suryavanshi, Dr. Brijesh Amin Co-ordinator G20 Summit gave hands on all possible ways to make event success. The event's success and fruitfulness were further enhanced by the instrumental role played by Dr. R. Subbaiah, the Principal and Dean of CAET, AAU, Godhra. His leadership and vision were crucial in shaping the event and ensuring its positive outcomes. Overall, the collaborative efforts of all individuals involved made this event a resounding success.

