Celebration of 75th Republic Day at CoA, Jabugam

India achieved independence on the 15th of August 1947 and formally transitioned into a republic on the 26th of January 1950. On this momentous day, the new constitution of free India came into effect, marking a significant milestone in the nation's history. It is a day of national rejoicing and is celebrated with fervor and spirit throughout the country.

The College of Agriculture, Jabugam, Anand Agricultural University, marked the 75th Republic Day with tremendous enthusiasm. Dr. Rajkumar D. Shinde, the NSS Officer of the college, unfurled the flag and delivered an inspiring address. Extending warm wishes to everyone on Republic Day, he emphasized the importance of the day and the Constitution. Dr. Lokesh Yadav and Dr. Rukhsar (faculties) also delivered speeches, sharing their perspectives and extending greetings. Following these, college student Ms. Dhartiba B. Dodiya (1st year) delivered a concise speech and Ms. Shrutiben M. Gohil (1st year) sang the patriotic song 'e vatan vatan mere'. To conclude the celebration, sweets were distributed among all the college staff members and students.

The entire program was efficiently managed by Mr. Vishal D. Gal (GS, College of Agriculture, Jabugam) and Mr. Jay P. Sokhadiya (CR, 1st year, College of Agriculture, Jabugam) under the thoughtful guidance of Dr. Sunil R. Patel (Principal, College of Agriculture, Jabugam), Dr. Vinod B. Mor (Chairman, SRC, College of Agriculture, Jabugam), and Dr. Rajkumar D. Shinde (NSS Officer, College of Agriculture, Jabugam).
