Dear all

I have the pleasure to announce that the ICAR-Sponsored Winter School on "Climate Smart Agriculture: Lessons Learnt, Technological Advances Made and Research Priorities in SAT" will be organized during 16th November to 6th December, 2015 at University of Agricultural Sciences, Raichur.

I request you to kindly nominate one or two scientists in the cadre of Assistant Professor/Associate Professor/Subject Matter Specialist, working in your esteemed university and also request you to kindly circulate the same among different institutions to enable interested scientists to apply for the same. TA will be restricted to AC-II tier or bus or any other means of transport in vogue. Free boarding and lodging will be provided to participants. The last date for submission of completed applications through proper channel will be 15.10.2015. Selected candidate will be intimated before 20-10-2015 to enable them to book their travel tickets and get relieved from duty.

A brochure on the details of the Winter School is enclosed and is available on CBP portal <http://www.iasri.res.in/cbp/>. The programme is meant for the researchers and teachers in relevant disciplines of SAUs, ICAR institutes and other public organizations. The interested participants are required to apply online using Capacity Building Programming portal. For further clarification, if any, please contact the Course Director at druasr@rediffmail.com (Ph: 08532 220154; Mobile: 9480696312; 9448821755)
