संस्कार से सजी-धजी है, सिर पर न्यारी बिंदी है,
इससे प्यारी नहीं है भाषा, सबसे प्यारी हिंदी है.

As the name suggests, Hindi Diwas is celebrated on 14th Sept. every year to celebrate the language and to commemorate the event when it was adopted as one of the official languages of India. The Constituent Assembly of India had, in 1949, recognised and adopted Hindi — an Indo-Aryan language written in the Devanagari script — as the official language of the newly-formed nation.

Indian people belong to many religions, cultures and traditions. The Hindi language is the most widely spoken language in India. According to reports 420 million people spoke Hindi in the year 2001 in India. Also, the number must have increased manifolds by now. The language serves as unity in diversity. It is believed that the Hindi language binds Indian together. The Hindi language is a symbol of unification. Everyone should know that Hindi is not just a national language. There are almost 22 recognized official languages in India. However, to promote unity in people and for better communication, Hindi Divas is observed. Hindi Diwas is observed in many Hindi speaking states of India.

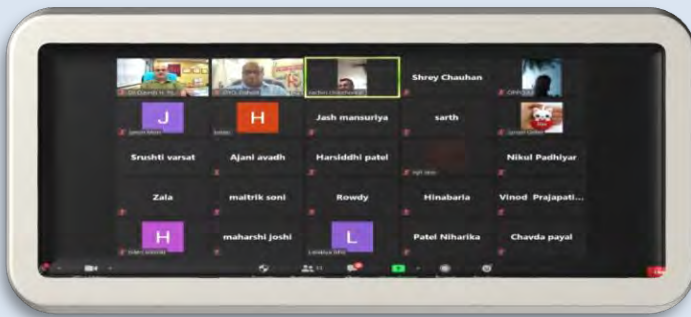

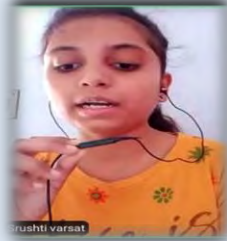

The Polytechnic in Agricultural Engineering, Anand Agricultural University, Muvaliya Farm, Dahod and Nehru Yuva Kendra, Dahod had jointly organized one day webinar on Hindi Diwas on 28th Sept. under Hindi Pakhwada. ## Glimpses of One day webinar on Hindi Divas

"After the Indian Independence, states spoke a lot of different languages. Everyone in the country aimed to have common languages. Thus, the communication will be easy all over the country. Hindi is the official communication language for the Central Government along with the English language".
