

Anti-Ragging Week Celebration

International Agribusiness Management Institute, AAU, Anand celebrated “Anti-Ragging Day” on 12th August 2025 under Anti-Ragging week from 12th to 18th August 2025. On this occasion, “Poster Design Competition” was organized on the theme “Anti-Ragging” with the objective of creating awareness about ragging-related issues. Students of the institute enthusiastically participated, showcasing a variety of creative and thought-provoking posters that reflected the importance of a ragging-free campus. The event served as a platform for students to express their views and spread awareness through art. Faculty members played a key role in encouraging student participation and contributed significantly to the successful planning and execution of the event.

To promote awareness about Anti-Ragging and ensure a safe and respectful environment on campus, students and staff of the college collectively viewed various informative videos available on the official government website on 13th August 2025. These videos highlighted the serious consequences of ragging, legal implications, and the importance of creating a supportive and inclusive academic atmosphere. The initiative aimed to educate the college community about their roles and responsibilities in preventing ragging and to reinforce the institution’s zero-tolerance policy towards any such activities. The entire event was organized by Dr. Ashish Mahera, SRC Co-Chairman and Co-ordinated by Dr. Chetan Dudhagara, SRC Chairman under the leadership of Dr. R. S. Pundir, Principal and Dean of the Institute.
