NSS Day Celebration

Slogan: Not Me But You

The main objective of the National Service Scheme as envisaged originally was service to the community, offered while undergoing instruction, in an educational institution. It was sought to arouse the social consciousness of students and provide them with the opportunity to work with the people around the educational campuses creatively and constructively and to put the education they received to concrete social use. It has been felt that the primary aim of the scheme is to enable the students to upgrade their personality and experience through community service. Every year 24th September is celebrated as NSS Day.

The motto, i.e., the watchword of the NSS is “Not Me But You”. This expresses the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for selfless service and appreciation of the other man's point of view and also to show consideration for fellow human beings. The Polytechnic in Agricultural Engineering, AAU, Dahod has been in the forefront of NSS activities. As a part of NSS Day celebration various events were conducted for the NSS volunteers. The event started by 5 p.m. The NSS unit has strength of 100 volunteers. The Principal, Dr. M.M.Trivedi gave advised the students to become role models in the society by making awareness about the social evils. He said that NSS Volunteers should involve themselves in the development of nation in general and college in particular. SRC Chairman Dr.B.K.Yaduvanshi, Er F.G.Sayyad , Asstt.Prof motivated the volunteers to be focused in their life. He urged them to be target oriented for utilizing the human potential which is the great strength of a nation.

In a very systematic manner, all the students got divided in different groups and allotted a separate area (Hostel, garden, and classroom area) in college campus with sufficient number of dust pans, dust bins and garbage bags. The cleanliness awareness rally began at 6.00 pm. The rally was headed by NSS Programme Officer Prof. S.S.Chinchorkar, NSS students, and Volunteers along with teaching, non-teaching staff participated in cleaning.

With strong appealing slogans and effective messages on took one complete round of the college campus waking up every mind and making them aware about the very necessary information regarding the cleanliness and disease. NSS Programme Officer presented the vote of thanks. The event ended by 6.30 p.m.
