

SACRED THREAD OF LOVE FOR OUR BRAVE SOLDIERS FROM AAU VASO FAMILY

"Rakhis are the silken cords that bind, revive and reassure"

Rakshabandhan marks the sacred bond of trust between brother and sister. On 11th August, 2022, the whole nation will be celebrating this festival of Rakhi. Every year, the girl students and staff-members of College of Agriculture & Polytechnic in Agriculture, AAU, Vaso celebrates this festival by sending Rakhis to our Jawans whose shielding hands give us a better and safer life. This year too, as a token of love and trust, the girl students and staff-members of College of Agriculture & Polytechnic in Agriculture, AAU, Vaso sent Rakhis to our brave soldiers of Dras Sector, Kargil. The whole AAU Vaso Family wishes that this thread of silk will serve as an amulet and would save our true heroes against misfortune. Jai Jawan, Jai Kisan!
