

Press Note

Visit cum training of students from ASPEE College of Horticulture and Forestry, Navsari Agricultural University, Navsari at Main Vegetable Research Station, AAU, Anand

Under the Student Rural Entrepreneurship Awareness Development Yojna (Student Ready RAWE Program), 64 students of eighth semester of B.Sc (Hons.) Horticulture, ASPEE College of Horticulture and Forestry, Navsari Agricultural University, Navsari and Dr. R. B. Ardeshna, Associate Professor and Dr. Hetal Rathod, Assistant Professor visited Main Vegetable Research Station, Anand Agricultural University, Anand on 22/05/2024. On the occasion, Dr. R. R. Acharya, Research Scientist (Vegetable), Main Vegetable Research Station, AAU, Anand gave detailed information to the students about the research of different vegetable crops going on at the centre. Then, Mr. K. J. Vekaria (Senior Research Assistant) briefed about the importance and research activities of sweet potato and cucurbit vegetables to the students. Dr. M. M. Pandya (Assistant Research Scientist) gave information about the prominence of okra crop as well as research trials conducted at the centre during summer season. Dr. N. A. Patel (Assistant Research Scientist) informed the students about improved varieties and hybrid of all the vegetable crops released from the Centre. Dr. M. M. Pandya and Dr. Ujjaval N. Patel (Senior Research Fellow) accompanied with students for visit to different farms of MVRS, AAU, Anand.

